Call for Applications: CIH^{LMU} One Health Scholarships

The CIH^{LMU} Center for International Health and OH-TARGET (One Health Training And Research Global Network) are two of twelve centers of excellence within the exceed initiative, funded by the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) and coordinated by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD). The vision and overarching aim of CIH^{LMU} is to empower health professionals. With this vision, CIH^{LMU} aspires to meet health-related challenges through capacity building in training and research. With the new OH-TARGET project, our vision has expanded to a more participatory and interdisciplinary approach to improve global health conditions. To find out more about what One Health means and the project please visit <https://www.cih.lmu.de/one-health-target>.

In order to support research on topics relevant to One Health, Master and Ph.D. students are invited to apply for the available One Health scholarships.

Who can apply for CIH^{LMU} One Health Scholarships?

Master and Ph.D. students who are enrolled at LMU Munich or an OH-TARGET partner institution completing a study program with a One Health-relevant research project are eligible to apply to the following scholarships. All One Health-relevant research projects are eligible; however, no-LMIC students need to work on a research project that bears a relation to low- and middle-income countries (LMIC). If you are not working on a One Health research project, but would like to attend a One Health event (e.g., a workshop, conference, etc.), you may also apply by explaining why the event is related to the One Health concept and how you will benefit from attending the event.

Alumni of our CIH^{LMU}-owned study programs (i.e. Ph.D. MR-IH, M.Sc. IH, MHPE, MOSH and M.Sc. ComMH) are also eligible to apply for our travel and accommodation scholarships if the activity to be funded is no more than 60 months after graduation.

The following scholarships are available for project-related student activities:

1. Travel Scholarships

The travel scholarships allow eligible Master and Ph.D. students to travel within Germany, within or between LMIC countries (as per valid DAC list) or between Germany and an LMIC country for project-related reasons (e.g. field work, conferences, module blocks, defenses). This scholarship can only be used for travel expenses of flights or long-distance trains (no taxis or other local public transportation) in accordance with cost-effective and economic principles (only economy class). The travel expenses will be reimbursed upon submission of receipts and proof of payment (e.g. credit card or bank statement) after the traveling.

Alumni of our CIH^{LMU}-owned study programs (i.e. Ph.D. MR-IH, M.Sc. IH, MHPE, MOSH and M.Sc. ComMH) are also eligible to apply for these travel scholarships if the activity to be funded is no more than 60 months after graduation. The travel scholarship can only be applied for participation in scientific events such as conferences, symposia and workshops if the alumni actively contribute to the event (e.g. poster or oral presentation).

2. Accommodation & Subsistence Scholarships

Three different types of accommodation scholarships are available:

a. Duration between 1-22 days

This scholarship allows eligible Master and Ph.D. students to spend project-related short-term stays away from the student's research site and/ or residence (e.g. for conferences, workshops). This short-term scholarship can only be used for hotel expenses including breakfast (if stated on the hotel receipt) in accordance with the Bavarian travel expenses act (Bayrisches Reisekostengesetz, BayRKG) and the cost-effective and economic principles. This scholarship cannot be used for any other purpose (e.g. restaurant bills) and the accommodation expenses will be reimbursed upon submission of receipts and proof of payment (e.g. credit card or bank statement) after the stay.

Alumni of our CIH^{LMU}-owned study programs (i.e. Ph.D. MR-IH, M.Sc. IH, MHPE, MOSH and M.Sc. ComMH) are also eligible to apply for these accommodation scholarships if the activity to be funded is no more than 60 months after graduation. The accommodation scholarship can only be applied for participation in scientific events such as conferences, symposia and workshops if the alumni actively contribute to the event (e.g. poster or oral presentation).

b. Duration between 23 days and 3 months

This middle-term scholarship allows eligible Master and Ph.D. students with a citizenship from a LMIC country (as per valid DAC list) to spend project-related time in their research country or other countries for e.g. defined study periods abroad. Students with a citizenship from a country not listed in the DAC list are also eligible to apply for this subsistence scholarship as long as their project-related stay will take place in a LMIC country. This scholarship is awarded in the form of a monthly pre-payment.

c. Duration between 3 and 6 months

This long-term scholarship covers subsistence expenses for up to 6 months in form of a monthly pre-payment to eligible Master and Ph.D. students with a citizenship from a LMIC country (as per valid DAC list) whose last earned academic degree is not dating back longer than 6 years at the time of application. Ph.D. students that already started their research thesis projects are only eligible if the start of the project is not dating back longer than 3 years. Furthermore, students with a citizenship from a LMIC country (as per valid DAC list) who are currently in Germany are only eligible if they have not resided in Germany for longer than 15 months at the time point of application. However, this does not apply for applicants who came to Germany to study, to pursue a doctoral study or to fulfill other scientific work. Moreover, persons who have been granted refugee status are also exempt from this regulation. With the signature of the beneficiary, it is confirmed that the subsidized individual of the project fulfils the prefixed prerequisites. This scholarship is awarded in the form of a monthly pre-payment.

3. Scholarship for Supervisor visits

This scholarship allows supervisors from the LMU or an OH-TARGET partner institution to visit their respective students at the research or study site. Please note, eligible Master or Ph.D. students can apply for the scholarship on behalf of their supervisors. However, flights and hotels need to be booked by the supervisors themselves in order to get refunded after the supervisor visit. Furthermore, after the supervisor visit the student needs to write and hand in a report including the agenda and summary of the visit to CIH^{LMU}.

a. Travel Scholarship for Supervisor visits

This scholarship can only be used for flight expenses in accordance with the cost-effective and economic principles (only economy class). The travel expenses will be refunded upon submission of receipts and proof of payment (e.g. credit card or bank statement) after the traveling. Please note, only flights between Germany and a LMI country (as per valid DAC list) or within low- and middle-income countries can be refunded.

b. Accommodation Scholarship for Supervisor visits

This accommodation scholarship can only be used for hotel expenses including breakfast (if stated on the hotel receipt) in accordance with the Bavarian travel expenses act (Bayrisches Reisekostengesetz, BayRKG) and the cost-effective and economic principles. The period of time in which the supervisor visit takes place must not exceed 7 days, including the arrival and departure day. The hotel expenses will be refunded upon submission of receipts and proof of payment (e.g. credit card or bank statement) after the supervisor visit.

In order to apply for a CIH^{LMU} One Health scholarship, please provide the following documents:

- Scan of your valid passport showing picture and personal data (mandatory)
- Proof of an official university enrollment, e.g. Master studies or Ph.D. program. If you are an alumni of one of our CIH^{LMU}-owned study programs, please upload your degree certificate (mandatory)
- Scan of your last official Academic certificates (if applicable)
- Motivation letter: (word count approx. 500)
 - Please outline the reasons why you apply for the scholarship(s) and why you deserve an OH-TARGET scholarship more than other applicants by outlining your motivation and the need for the scholarship(s).
 - Furthermore, please name us the title of your research project, describe it and explain to us why you think it is One Health-relevant. For this, please elaborate in detail your project's connection to the concept of One Health (e.g. through literature research etc.) and make sure to highlight your motivation behind it.
 - Additionally, please outline whether and how your project is relevant to low- and middle-income settings.
 - If you have previously received a One Health Scholarship from CIH^{LMU}, please describe in your motivation letter the progress of your project during the previous scholarship period.
 - If you are not working on a One Health research project, but would like to participate in a One Health event (e.g., a workshop, conference, etc.), you may also apply by explaining why the event is related to the One Health concept and how you will benefit from attending the event.

Please note that if you are applying for more than one scholarship, you must outline your motivation and need for each scholarship in your motivation letter.

Topics that should be covered in your motivation letter include:

- ✓ Motivation & need
- ✓ Description of research topic/project
(incl. progress during previous scholarship period if applicable)
- ✓ Relation to One Health concept
- ✓ Relation to LMICs

Evaluation and Selection

Only complete applications fulfilling the eligibility criteria and the formal requirements will be reviewed by the Selection Committee. Among all scholarship applications, the selection committee votes according to strict selection criteria including coherence of the motivation letter and neediness.

The selection of CIH^{LMU} One Health Scholarship awardees will take place on the last Thursday of every even-numbered month (February, April, June, August, October, and December). Results of the evaluation and selection process will be announced to the applicants by email and scholarship awardees will receive a Scholarship Certificate.

After the scholarship period

All scholarship recipients need to submit a written scholarship report to the CIH^{LMU} Center for International Health. For subsistence scholarship holders, these reports must be submitted no later than one month after the end of the scholarship period. For all scholarships requiring a reimbursement by CIH^{LMU}, the scholarship report must be submitted together with all documents required for reimbursement. The reimbursement will not be initiated until the scholarship report is received. A template for the report will be provided by CIH^{LMU}.

All scholarship recipients are invited to join the One Health Scholarship Recipient meetings offered throughout the year to connect with other scholarship holders. Participation is voluntary.

Please note:

- We require documents translated into English or German. Please note that we cannot accept documents in a different language other than English or German.
- Applications that fail to comply with the above requirements will be declined without review.
- Please note that the CIH^{LMU} Center for International Health does not send out reminders for missing documents.
- Please note that it is not possible to apply for a scholarship retrospectively! The scholarship period/event must be in the future.
- Scholarships may be withheld in case of severe misconduct or in serious case of deception as well as due to severe insufficient performance.
- Scholarships can only be transferred if the given bank account details are complete and correct. In case of wrong or insufficient information, the respective scholarship holder is responsible for any delays in transaction or loss of scholarship payments.
- According to the current DAAD rules, we are not able to refund cancellation fees. It is the scholarship owners responsibility to make sure that flight, train and hotel bookings will not result in cancellation fees if any cancellations need to be made (incl. Covid-19 related cancellations).

If you are interested in applying for the advertised CIH^{LMU} One Health scholarship, please apply via our CIH^{LMU} One Health scholarship application portal. Please note that the deadline for submitting scholarship applications to be considered in our review process in the same month is the second Thursday of every even-numbered month.
